LATEST INTERNATIONAL REAL ESTATE PROJECTS SHOWCASED AT MIPIM 2018

Paris, 8 February 2018 – Major international real estate projects, representing all segments of real estate – offices, residential, hotel and tourism, commercial, industrial and logistics among others – will be showcased during MIPIM 2018.

Click here to download a selection of 97 real estate projects from 24 countries that will be showcased at MIPIM 2018. Among these projects, you will discover the refurbishment of a 1960s Milan residential complex into a smart urban ecosystem, an ultra-luxury mixed-use development with unique architecture located in Kenya and the Mui Dinh Ecopark on the east coast of Vietnam, a hospitality-led mixed-use development.

Below are other projects also showcased at MIPIM this year:

Mixed-use real estate

Tribequa, Bordeaux (France)

Presented by Bordeaux Euratlantique

Tribequa will be a 55,000-sq m mix of offices, housing and other activities located in the Bordeaux Euratlantique district, near the TGV railway station. The project will also transform the former postal sorting centre into a 5,000-sq m Congress and Exhibition Centre. The project was designed by Emmanuel Combarel from the ECDM agency.

Urban development

Shinagawa Development, Tokyo (Japan)

Presented by East Japan Railway Company

East Japan Railway Company's (JR East's) Shinagawa development project will provide a new railway station near Shinagawa station, projected to open in 2020. Shinagawa has rapid access to Haneda airport and Shinkansen station and, through collaboration with the surrounding communities, JR East is developing plans to create a town with international appeal.

Offices

Pirhuset, Stockholm (Sweden)

Presented by Stockholm Business Region

The old harbours of Stockholm will be developed into a new sustainable urban waterfront, extending the historic city. Pirhuset, developed by Bonnier Fastigheter in cooperation with Stockholm city planning department, will be a new landmark and signature building for the city. The new building will be partly constructed on a new pier which will also provide a public plaza facing the water.

Residential real estate

Westminster Works, Birmingham (UK)

Presented by The High Street Group

Westminster Works comprises an eight-storey building accommodating 253 units. It is located within the Southern Gateway £1 billion regeneration zone brought forward as part of the high-speed rail network 'HS2' masterplan, linking Birmingham and London. Westminster Works offers city living within a vibrant new neighbourhood. The area is a major development opportunity to create a new destination delivering development with the highest sustainability credentials.
